Lord of hosts, I thank thee for the many blessings which Thou hast granted us as citizens of this country. I acknowledge that we are not worthy of any of Thy manifold mercies. I, as well as we, our Church and our country, have sinned against Thee. I have been ungrateful, and have deserved Thy judgments rather than the privileges so often and shamefully abused. Remember, I ask Thee, Thy mercies of old, and for the sake of Thine only-begotten Son, our Redeemer, forgive us our guilt. Guard our country from war and bloodshed, from revolution and civic strife, from famine and pestilence. Preserve to us and to our children the liberty and the peace we have enjoyed, and let no enemy from within or without succeed in depriving our nation of these treasures of Thy mercy. Grant the rulers of our country, our state, and our community, wisdom and courage to uphold righteousness, that under this government we may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and honesty. And may Thy church flourish to Thy glory and the salvation of souls redeemed by Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

Our next gathering:

Will be on Thursday, September 1st – Pastor Jennifer Garcia, Associate Pastor of First Lutheran in Fullerton and a member of the Pacifica Synod Evangelism Team, has created a Bible study curriculum for Pacifica Synod congregations to use in their setting about sharing our faith stories in a more relational way. We hope you can join us as she shares with us the overview of her curriculum.

Keep watch in the Synod E-news for a registration link.

Pacifica Synod has invested in training coaches to work with rostered and lay leaders one-on-one or in groups. A coach's role is to support leaders in naming challenging issues and identifying constructive responses to them.
